Re: Supplement to Order No. 587-AB Compliance;
TransColorado Gas Transmission Company LLC;
Docket No. RP26-1156-000

Commissioners:

On August 31, 2026, TransColorado Gas Transmission Company LLC ("TransColorado") submitted a filing in the above-referenced docket ("August Filing") to comply with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's ("Commission") Final Rule in Docket No. RM96-1-044 ("Order No. 587-AB").¹ In the August Filing, TransColorado requested a continuation of waivers, variances, and extensions of time for certain NAESB standards. It has come to TransColorado's attention that Order No. 587-AB revised only three NAESB Version 4.0 standards and that NAESB Version 4.0 otherwise remains in effect. Consequently, the variances, waivers, and extensions of time that the Commission previously granted TransColorado in the NAESB Version 4.0 proceeding remain valid² and TransColorado unnecessarily requested the continuations in the August Filing. Accordingly, TransColorado withdraws its requests for variances, waivers, and extensions.³

Respectfully submitted,

TransColorado Gas Transmission
Company LLC
